MUSCLE SHOALS 24 HOUR FILIBUSTER ENDS

4 DEMOCRATIC SENATORS GIVE UP THEIR TASK

INFORMED COOLIDGE WOULD VETO BILL EVEN IF IT WERE PASSED

SENATE ADOPTS NORRIS REPORT ON MUSCLE SHOALS, 43 TO 34

Washington, May 25. — (UP) — Four democratic senators were persuaded to abandon their filibuster against the Muscle Shoals conference report at 11:40 A. M. E. S. T. today, after they had held the senate in continuous session for more than 24 hours.

The senators were McKellar of Tennessee, Tydings of Maryland, King of Utah and Blaise of South Carolina.

They had been privately informed that President Coolidge would veto the bill even if it were passed, and therefore little excuse remained for them to carry on their sensational and weary parliamentary game.

McKellar's information was understood to have developed from the action of Senator Curtis, republican floor leader, who went to the White House early this forenoon with sleepy eyes to appeal to Mr. Coolidge to say he should veto the measure.

The United Press learned Mr. Coolidge declined to commit himself definitely, saying the bill was the business of the senate at this time, not his. He said, however, he would consider it upon its merits when and if it came to him for signature, and Curtis left opponents of the bill feeling confident the president would veto the measure. All senate republican leaders believe he will.

As soon as the filibuster ended, the senate adopted the Norris report. The Norris report, as adopted, 43 to 34, provided that the Cove Creek dam should be constructed and that only so much fertilizer be manufactured at Muscle Shoals as is necessary for experimental purposes.

The revised bill now goes to the house for action there before it can be sent to the president for his signature.

The roll call follows:
For—43.
Republicans (16)—Blaine, Borah, Brookhart, Capper, Couzens, Cutting, Howell, Johnson, LaFollette, McMaster, McNary, Norris, Nye, Robinson, Indiana; Schall, Steiwer.
Democrats (26)—Barkley, Black, Bratton, Caraway, Copeland, Dill, Fletcher, George, Glass, Harris, Harrison, Kendrick, Locher, Neely, Reed, Missouri; Robinson, Arkansas; Shepard, Simmons, Smith, Stephens, Swanson, Thomas, Wagner, Walsh, Massachusetts; Walsh, Montana; Wheeler.

Farmer-labor (1)—Shipstead.
Against—34.
Republicans (22)—Bingham, Curtis, Dale, Deenen, Edge, Fess, Gillett, Green, Hale, Keyes, McLean, Metcalfe, Moses, Oddie, Phipps, Pine, Reed, Pennsylvania; Sackett, Smoot, Vandenberg, Waterman, Watson.
Democrats (12)—Ashurst, Bayard, Blaise, Edwards, Gerry, Hayden, King, McKellar, Steck, Tydings, Tyson.

Washington, May 25. — Congressional action on the Muscle Shoals bill was completed today with house adoption of the conference report and the measure now goes to President Coolidge. The house vote was 211 to 116.

Washington, May 25.—House consideration of the Swing-Johnson Boulder Dam bill was held up temporarily today by other matters, including the conference report on the Muscle Shoals bill.

The measure will be taken up later, and a final vote sought today.

ARTHUR E. NELSON SPEAKS IN 7 TOWNS OF FILLMORE COUNTY

Spring Valley, Minn., May 25. — Launching his campaign for the republican nomination to the United States senate, Arthur E. Nelson, former mayor of St. Paul, spoke in seven Fillmore county towns Thursday.

In his speeches he attacked discriminatory railway rates, stating they aided the east and south but were detrimental to the mid-west.

Today Nelson will appear at Grand Meadow, Brownsdale, Austin, Lyle, Glenville and Albert Lea. Thursday's itinerary included Spring Grove, Mabel, Canton, Harmony, Preston, Wykoff and Spring Valley.

Italia Fights Winds as Fuel Supply Runs Low

LOS ANGELES 'GUNBOY' DEFIES THE AUTHORITIES

Los Angeles, May 25.—(UP)—The "gunboy" of Los Angeles, whose age is placed at between 13 and 15 years, continues to win his game against the law.

Defying scores of police who directed their efforts against the lad after he had engaged in 10 holdups, the "gunboy" staged two robberies within 15 minutes last night and obtained $110.

First he robbed a Postal Telegraph company branch office. Then he robbed a Western Union branch office.

A reward of $700 has been offered for the capture of the lad.

ANNUAL NORTHWEST AIRCRAFT SHOW IS NOW UNDER WAY

STARTED THURSDAY AT MINNEAPOLIS WITH DAY OF STUNT FLYING

WINNIPEG TO SEND GOOD WILL FLYING DELEGATION ON SATURDAY

Minneapolis, May 25.—(UP)—A squadron of army pursuit planes arrived here today from Selfridge field to take part in the first annual Northwest Aircraft Show which started Thursday with a day of stunt flying at Wold-Chamberlin field here.

The cordon includes six planes under the direction of Lieut. Robert L. Schloenlein, commander. It is one of the best known units in the United States service.

A squadron from Fort Riley, Kansas, is also expected to reach here late today while Winnipeg will send a good will delegation Saturday.

The feature event of the show is scheduled for Saturday—an air race of 20 planes from the Twin Cities to Crookston. The planes will start from the St. Paul airport Saturday morning and will arrive at Crookston around noon.

Five-minute stops are scheduled at Wold-Chamberlin field and at Little Falls, Minn. Officials of the aircraft exhibition and of the American Legion will accompany the planes to Crookston.

Following a day of stunt flying at Crookston the planes will leave on Sunday for a good will tour to Winnipeg.

CONTINENTAL TRADING CO. DEALERS PAY INCOME TAX

Washington, May 25.—(UP)—The government has collected more than $2,000,000 in income taxes from those involved in the questioned Continental Trading Company oil deal, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon told the senate today in a letter.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES SEEK WAGE RAISE

Washington, May 25.—(UP)—The senate today agreed to the conference report on the Welsh bill raising salaries of 135,000 federal employees by an estimated $29,000,000. The report then went to the house for concurrence, after which President Coolidge is expected to sign it.

RADIO HEAD KILLED WHEN PLANE CRASHES

Curtiss Field, N. Y., May 25.—(UP)—Herbert C. Doyle, president of the Sleeper Radio Corporation of Long Island City, was killed today when his Ireland Meteor biplane crashed in Sam Morrell's farm, near Curtiss field.

HEIRESS PENNILESS WHEN SHE KILLED HERSELF AT DENVER

Denver, Colo., May 25.—(UP)—Although she was an heiress to half of a $400,000 estate, Mrs. Ruth E. McDonald, 30, was penniless when she committed suicide here, police revealed today.

Domestic troubles were said to have caused Mrs. McDonald to take her own life.

Chairman McNary to Seek Vote to Override Coolidge Veto of McNary-Haugen Measure

FARM BLOC MEMBERS URGE HIM ON COURSE

WILL SEEK VOTE AFTER BOULDER BILL IS OUT OF WAY

PREVIOUSLY EXPRESSED THE OPINION WOULD BE FUTILE

The senate today by a vote of 50 to 31 failed to override President Coolidge's veto of the farm bill.

Washington, May 25.—(UP)—Chairman McNary of the senate agriculture committee announced today he would seek a vote to override President Coolidge's veto of his McNary-Haugen farm price bill.

McNary previously had expressed opinion that such action would be futile but farm bloc members persuaded him to adopt his announced course.

McNary said he would not let the vote to override the veto be used by filibusterers against the Boulder dam bill, and indicated he would seek a vote only after the Boulder bill is out of the way.

Washington, May 25.—The vetoed McNary-Haugen farm relief bill was taken up by the senate this afternoon at the request of Sen. McNary, republican, Oregon.

"It seems to me too late in the session for any other helpful legislation to be drafted," McNary said. "I hope the senate will override the president's veto."

The president had suggested in his veto message that farm legislation, satisfactory to him, should be passed. Meantime, there were reports that the president had a plan of his own ready to present if the opportunity offered.

STUDENT DISORDERS BREEDING ARRESTS

INNSBRUCK, AUSTRIA, SCENE OF MUCH RIOTING OVER THE ITALIAN FLAG

Innsbruck, Austria, May 25.—(UP)—A series of student disorders, including the tearing down of the Italian flag from the Italian consulate, today had resulted in numerous arrests and an official government communique condemning the rioting.

Twenty-two were known to have been arrested and many were injured as police swung through the streets, using their batons, attempting to prevent a recurrence of the riotous scenes.

The incident began in the morning when a group of students tore down the Italian consulate flag, which had been raised in anniversary of Italy's entrance into the world war. The students had gathered in the Cafe Munich, over which the consulate is situated, and started singing the nationalist anti-Italian songs. One student climbed through a window and seized the Italian colors.

The consul protested to the government and demanded the flag be replaced. A platoon of soldiers appeared and raised the flag while the Italians gave the fascist salute. The crowd boomed and started to attack the Italian barracks. Police dispersed the throng gathering.

Mexican Flier is Winging Way From San Diego to Mexico City

Valbuena Flying Field, Mexico City, May 25.—(UP)—Emilio Carranza, Mexican star flier, was reported to have passed Guadalajara at 10:35 A. M., E. S. T. today on his flight from San Diego to Mexico City. He was expected here about 1 P. M. E. S. T.

Previously Carranza had been reported over Guayamas.

ALLEGED FORGER MAY FEEL EFFECT OF BAUMES LAW

St. Paul, May 25.—(UP)—Michael S. Cummings, who will appear in district court May 31 to answer two charges of second degree forgery, faces a sentence of life imprisonment under the Baumes habitual criminal law.

If he is convicted on the two counts they will constitute his third and fourth felony convictions. Under the Baumes law a fourth felony conviction makes possible imposition of life sentence.

PROPAGANDA BARRAGE AT DAM AND SHOALS

PRIVATE UTILITIES INTERESTS CHARGED WITH INCEPTION OF SAME

MAKE TARGETS OF BOULDER DAM AND MUSCLE SHOALS

By CECIL OWEN (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, May 25.—Boulder Dam and Muscle Shoals—huge power projects of interest to thousands in the west and south—have been subjected to a constant barrage of propaganda by private utilities interests, according to evidence on file today in the federal trade commission's utilities investigation.

Hundreds of pieces of literature attacking proposals for government operation of these projected plants have been circulated to newspapers, librarians, schools, colleges, clubs and even penitentiaries by the utilities' publicity organization. Money has been spent with a princely hand to fight the possibility of government operation, according to the evidence.

Conferences of western governors have been carefully watched and efforts have been made to sway sentiment in western states against the Boulder dam development, evidence disclosed. Two former western governors and Richard Washburn Child, former ambassador to Italy, were involved in this attempt.

Child received $7,500 for writing a pamphlet opposing Boulder dam.

A large part of the $400,000 spent by the joint committee since June last year went in the battle to defeat the Swing-Johnson and Norris-Morin bills. State utilities information bureaus also devoted part of their funds to the circulation of anti-Boulder dam booklets furnished them by the National Electric Light Association and the joint committee.

Attempts to influence the editorial expressions of Carolina newspapers was indicated in correspondence between S. E. Boney, publicity man, and C. A. Beasley, attorney representing the Alabama Power Co. distributed by an editorial in the Greenville, S. C., News, which quoted information of the popular government league Boney asked Beasley for aid in controverting such expressions.

LEAPS TO SAFETY WITH PARACHUTE AS PLANE BURNS

Mitchell Field, N. Y., May 25.—(UP)—Lieut. Stanley M. Umstead, United States army pilot, leaped to safety with a parachute when his plane caught fire at an altitude of 2,500 feet today.

Only luck saved Umstead from death. When his plane took fire he started to climb out for the jump. His parachute strap caught on the seat and before he could free himself he dropped a thousand feet tangled in the blazing, whirling plane.

When he fought clear he leaped and made a good descent. He had slight burns on his hands and face and his mustache was singed off.

When the plane crashed, the gasoline exploded, blowing the tank nearly 200 feet.

POLICE CHIEFS AGREE ON THE STATUS OF SALOON

SALOON—OPEN, REGULATED OR OTHERWISE—SHOULD NEVER RETURN

VIEWS OF CHIEF OF CLEVELAND THAT PROHIBITION IS FAILURE HAVE LITTLE SUPPORT

Chicago, May 25.—(UP)—Years spent enforcing prohibition has changed the ideas of many middle-western police chiefs on the dry law, but they are well agreed on the saloon question.

The saloon—open, regulated or otherwise—should never return, most of them believe.

The views of Police Chief Jacob Grual of Cleveland, who believes prohibition has been a failure and favors return of a saloon, minus swinging doors and drawn curtains, are not shared by the majority of police officials in the middle west, a survey by the United Press showed.

With the exception of one or two of the larger cities, the chiefs hope that the barroom, whether with swinging doors or without has vanished permanently from the American scene.

Few appeared to believe, as did the Cleveland chief, that the removal of curtains and doors would have a discouraging effect on the saloon's business or that a barroom "where all the world could see what's going on" would be any more sober than the pre-war examples.

Chief Fred Reed of Denver was one who strongly opposed the return of the public drinking house. Recalling the time when Denver still had the atmosphere—and the thirst—of the frontier days, he said:

"The old-time saloons, where the men hitched their horses to a rack, then went inside and got tanked, were one of the worst menaces in the country's history. I wouldn't want to see them back again. I don't think they'd help conditions any."

Chief E. J. Murnane of St. Paul, Minn., shared the Denver chief's view. He, however, gave a ray of hope to the followers of John Barleycorn.

"I'm not in favor of bringing back the saloon," he said, "but I believe some way could be found, if the dry law were repealed, to sell liquor in a saner manner than before prohibition. If we must have whisky, sell it in a grocery store, for example. The buyer could take it home and drink it like a man."

In Kansas City, Mo., where the republican national convention soon will begin, Chief Lincoln R. Toyne has been engaged in a clean-up campaign. He believes much crime in his city recently is traceable directly to bootlegging activities and warfare among rival beer and alcohol syndicates. In his opinion it would be easier to regulate licensed open saloons than to rid the city of its bootleggers.

GAS EXPLOSION KILLS 7 MEN

4 INJURED AT NORTH WILKESBARRE MINE IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 25.—(UP)—Seven men were killed and five seriously hurt today in a gas explosion at the Conyngham shaft of the Hudson Coal Co. in North Wilkesbarre. Four bodies have been removed from the shaft.

Four of the injured were said to be in a critical condition.

AIR TRAVEL GROWS IN THE NORTHWEST

Washington, May 25.—(UP)—Because of increasing northwest air travel between the United States and Canada, the treasury department has designated St. Paul, Minn., as a customs airport of entry. It was announced today. Key West, Florida, is the only other customs airport.

ABATEMENT OF SATURDAY PRESS UPHELD BY COURT

St. Paul, May 25.—(UP)—Abatement of the Saturday Press, so-called scandal sheet published in Minneapolis weekly, was upheld today by the state supreme court.

The court held that the freedom of the press extended by the state constitution did not extend to publications devoted to scandalous, malicious and defamatory material.

Today's decision affirmed a ruling handed down several months ago overruling a demurrer brought by Howard A. Gullford and J. M. Near, publishers, against abatement proceedings.

METHODISTS IN DEADLOCK OVER BISHOP

CONCERNS ELECTION OF THIRD BISHOP AT CONFERENCE

AT 16TH BALLOT DR. LOUIS O. HARTMAN POLLED 391 VOTES

Kansas City, Mo., May 25.—(UP)—The Methodist Episcopal conference was in a deadlock today over the election of a third bishop.

The same rule which caused the democratic national convention in 1924 to be a long, drawn out affair, caused the deadlock in the Methodist conference—the required two-thirds majority.

The result of the sixteenth ballot showed Dr. Louis O. Hartman of Boston leading the field with 391 votes.

Dr. Lucius H. Bugbee, pastor of the millionaire's church in Minneapolis, withdrew after having advanced to 229 votes on the fifteenth ballot.

Complaint Charges Radio Corporation With Unfair Competition

Washington, May 25.—(UP)—A complaint charging the Radio Corporation of America with unfair competition was issued today by the federal trade commission.

The commission charged the radio concern with unfair practice in requiring manufacturers of radio sets to use the corporation's tubes. The corporation has thirty days in which to reply.

TRAIN CRASHES INTO STALLED TRUCK TRAILER

Gary, Ind., May 25.—(UP)—Two trainmen were killed and many passengers shaken up when a north-bound Monon train crashed headlong into a stalled truck trailer at a grade crossing near St. John, today.

The engine overturned in a deep ditch. Five cars derailed. Engineer William Bellanger, and Fireman Floyd Crowder, both of Indianapolis, were killed. Crowder's body was recovered from the engine cab half an hour after the accident and taken to Hammond.

PRES. COOLIDGE OPENS IOWA'S AERONAUTIC DAY

Washington, May 25.—(UP)—President Coolidge opened Iowa's aeronautic day today by touching a button at the White House which fired a field gun at Des Moines, signaling the event.

MORE THAN 200 ARRESTS FOLLOW DYNAMITING

Buenos Aires, May 25.—(UP)—More than 200 persons have been arrested as authorities sought today to place the blame for the dynamiting of the Italian consulate and a drug store owned by a fascist leader.

Authorities believed the dynamitings were conducted by anarchists. Many such radicals were among those arrested. All denied complicity. Six persons were killed.

HEAVY ICE CRUST FORMS ON ITS HULL

CREW OF POLAR DIRIGIBLE RE-PAIRED SEVERAL RIPS IN COVERING

NOW FIGHTING HER WAY TOWARD SPITZBERGEN AND SAFETY

Kings Bay, May 25.—(UP)—Battered throughout a night and day by a terrific storm and now crippled, the polar dirigible Italia today turned northward from her homeward course in a fight for life.

Gen. Umberto Nobile, the Italia's commander, radioed at 9 A. M. today that one of the big dirigible's motors was disabled.

He said that he had turned northward, hoping to reach the Mossum Islands.

The Italia's situation here was regarded as critical, and it was reported that the wind over the polar area was increasing.

The base ship Citta Di Milano was preparing late today to proceed through the storm to the Italia's rescue.

Kings Bay, May 25.—Battered by winds, her fuel supply running low, the polar dirigible Italia was reported at 2 P. M. today still to be fighting her way toward Spitzbergen and safety after her triumphal cruise over the north pole.

One report was an unsigned message, believed to have been written by Gen. Umberto Nobile, that told of a desperate struggle against a storm.

An ice crust was forming on the Italia's hull, the message said, and the crew had repaired several rips in her covering.

Before this there had come a message—at 11 A. M.—that said the Italia hoped to land at 4 P. M.

At that hour the Italia had been gone nearly 60 hours on what General Umberto Nobile, her commander had planned as a forty-hour flight.

News of the Italia partially relieved great anxiety that had been felt here for her safety.

There had been no word of her for several hours—and she had been due here at midnight.

The Italia was believed to have thirteen men aboard in addition to General Nobile.

Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, May 25.—(8 A. M.)—Twelve hours overdue from her triumphant cruise over the north pole, the dirigible Italia, fighting her way back through Arctic storms to her base here, was rapidly exhausting her fuel supply today.

For several hours there had been no radio message from the Italia. She had been gone, at 8 A. M., nearly 52 hours. At the outset her commander, Gen. Umberto Nobile, had expected to be gone only 40 hours. This would have brought the Italia back at midnight.

The landing force from the base ship Citta Di Milano waited throughout the night for the drone of the Italia's motors to come out of the north, but there was no sound.

As the hours passed the landing force became alarmed. Just what amount of surplus fuel the ship had aboard was not known. But members of the ground force said it soon would be exhausted.

With the maximum amount of fuel aboard, the Italia would be able to remain in the air much longer than the time so far elapsed. On her last flight, she was gone 68 hours.

Anxiety of the landing force, in view of the Italia's silence and the knowledge, from radio messages, that she was fighting every inch of the way back, with a coating of ice forming on her great hull, was tempered by the fact that Nobile was in charge.

The Italia is Nobile's ship. He designed her, built her, has accompanied her on every flight, and has remained at her helm at all the frequent times when her buoyancy and power were matched against the storms she has encountered.

GAS EXPLOSION KILLS 7 MEN

4 INJURED AT NORTH WILKESBARRE MINE IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 25.—(UP)—Seven men were killed and five seriously hurt today in a gas explosion at the Conyngham shaft of the Hudson Coal Co. in North Wilkesbarre. Four bodies have been removed from the shaft.

Four of the injured were said to be in a critical condition.

AIR TRAVEL GROWS IN THE NORTHWEST

Washington, May 25.—(UP)—Because of increasing northwest air travel between the United States and Canada, the treasury department has designated St. Paul, Minn., as a customs airport of entry, it was announced today. Key West, Florida, is the only other customs airport.

POLICE CHIEFS AGREE ON THE STATUS OF SALOON

SALOON—OPEN, REGULATED OR OTHERWISE—SHOULD NEVER RETURN

VIEWS OF CHIEF OF CLEVELAND THAT PROHIBITION IS FAILURE HAVE LITTLE SUPPORT

Chicago, May 25.—(UP)—Years spent enforcing prohibition has changed the ideas of many middle-western police chiefs on the dry law, but they are well agreed on the saloon question.

The saloon—open, regulated or otherwise—should never return, most of them believe.

The views of Police Chief Jacob Grual of Cleveland, who believes prohibition has been a failure and favors return of a saloon, minus swinging doors and drawn curtains, are not shared by the majority of police officials in the middle west, a survey by the United Press showed.

With the exception of one or two of the larger cities, the chiefs hope that the barroom, whether with swinging doors or without has vanished permanently from the American scene.

Few appeared to believe, as did the Cleveland chief, that the removal of curtains and doors would have a discouraging effect on the saloon's business or that a barroom "where all the world could see what's going on" would be any more sober than the pre-war examples.

Chief Fred Reed of Denver was one who strongly opposed the return of the public drinking house. Recalling the time when Denver still had the atmosphere—and the thirst—of the frontier days, he said:

"The old-time saloons, where the men hitched their horses to a rack, then went inside and got tanked, were one of the worst menaces in the country's history. I wouldn't want to see them back again. I don't think they'd help conditions any."

Chief E. J. Murnane of St. Paul, Minn., shared the Denver chief's view. He, however, gave a ray of hope to the followers of John Barleycorn.

"I'm not in favor of bringing back the saloon," he said, "but I believe some way could be found, if the dry law were repealed, to sell liquor in a saner manner than before prohibition. If we must have whiskey, sell it in a grocery store, for example. The buyer could take it home and drink it like a man."

In Kansas City, Mo., where the republican national convention soon will begin, Chief Lincoln R. Toyne has been engaged in a clean-up campaign. He believes much crime in his city recently is traceable directly to bootlegging activities and warfare among rival beer and alcohol syndicates. In his opinion it would be easier to regulate licensed open saloons than to rid the city of its bootleggers.

PRES. COOLIDGE OPENS IOWA'S AERONAUTIC DAY

Washington, May 25.—(UP)—President Coolidge opened Iowa's aeronautic day today by touching a button at the White House which fired a field gun at Des Moines, signaling the event.

MORE THAN 200 ARRESTS FOLLOW DYNAMITING

Buenos Aires, May 25.—(UP)—More than 200 persons have been arrested as authorities sought today to place the blame for the dynamiting of the Italian consulate and a drug store owned by a fascist leader.

Authorities believed the dynamitings were conducted by anarchists. Many such radicals were among those arrested. All denied complicity. Six persons were killed.

ABATEMENT OF SATURDAY PRESS UPHELD BY COURT

St. Paul, May 25.—(UP)—Abatement of the Saturday Press, so-called scandal sheet published in Minneapolis weekly, was upheld today by the state supreme court. The court held that the freedom of the press extended by the state constitution did not extend to publications devoted to scandalous, malicious and defamatory material.

Today's decision affirmed a ruling handed down several months ago overruling a demurrer brought by Howard A. Gullford and J. M. Near, publishers, against abatement proceedings.

METHODISTS IN DEADLOCK OVER BISHOP

AT 16TH BALLOT DR. LOUIS O. HARTMAN POLLED 391 VOTES

Kansas City, Mo., May 25.—(UP)—The Methodist Episcopal conference was in a deadlock today over the election of a third bishop.

The same rule which caused the democratic national convention in 1924 to be a long, drawn out affair, caused the deadlock in the Methodist conference—the required two-thirds majority.

The result of the sixteenth ballot showed Dr. Louis O. Hartman of Boston leading the field with 391 votes.

Dr. Lucius H. Bugbee, pastor of the millionaire's church in Minneapolis, withdrew after having advanced to 229 votes on the fifteenth ballot.

Complaint Charges Radio Corporation With Unfair Competition

Washington, May 25.—(UP)—A complaint charging the Radio Corporation of America with unfair competition was issued today by the federal trade commission.

The commission charged the radio concern with unfair practice in requiring manufacturers of radio sets to use the corporation's tubes. The corporation has thirty days in which to reply.

TRAIN CRASHES INTO STALLED TRUCK TRAILER

Gary, Ind., May 25.—(UP)—Two trainmen were killed and many passengers shaken up when a north bound Monon train crashed headlong into a stalled truck trailer at a grade crossing near St. John, today.

The engine overturned in a deep ditch. Five cars derailed. Engineer William Bellanger, and Fireman Floyd Crowder, both of Indianapolis, were killed. Crowder's body was recovered from the engine cab half an hour after the accident and taken to Hammond.

HEAVY ICE CRUST FORMS ON ITS HULL

CREW OF POLAR DIRIGIBLE REPAIRED SEVERAL RIPS IN COVERING

NOW FIGHTING HER WAY TOWARD SPITZBERGEN AND SAFETY

Kings Bay, May 25.—(UP)—Battered throughout a night and day by a terrific storm and now crippled, the polar dirigible Italia today turned northward from her homeward course in a fight for life.

Gen. Umberto Nobile, the Italia's commander, radioed at 9 A. M. today that one of the big dirigible's motors was disabled.

He said that he had turned northward, hoping to reach the Mossum Islands.

The Italia's situation here was regarded as critical, and it was reported that the wind over the polar area was increasing.

The base ship Citta Di Milano was preparing late today to proceed through the storm to the Italia's rescue.

Kings Bay, May 25.—Battered by winds, her fuel supply running low, the polar dirigible Italia was reported at 2 P. M. today still to be fighting her way toward Spitzbergen and safety after her triumphal cruise over the north pole.

One report was an unsigned message, believed to have been written by Gen. Umberto Nobile, that told of a desperate struggle against a storm.

An ice crust was forming on the Italia's hull, the message said, and the crew had repaired several rips in her covering.

Before this there had come a message—at 11 A. M.—that said the Italia hoped to land at 4 P. M.

At that hour the Italia had been gone nearly 60 hours on what General Umberto Nobile, her commander had planned as a forty-hour flight.

News of the Italia partially relieved great anxiety that had been felt here for her safety.

There had been no word of her for several hours—and she had been due here at midnight.

The Italia was believed to have thirteen men aboard in addition to General Nobile.

Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, May 25.—(8 A. M.).—Twelve hours overdue from her triumphant cruise over the north pole, the dirigible Italia, fighting her way back through Arctic storms to her base here, was rapidly exhausting her fuel supply today.

For several hours there had been no radio message from the Italia. She had been gone, at 8 A. M., nearly 52 hours. At the outset her commander, Gen. Umberto Nobile, had expected to be gone only 40 hours. This would have brought the Italia back at midnight.

The landing force from the base ship Citta Di Milano waited throughout the night for the drone of the Italia's motors to come out of the north, but there was no sound.

As the hours passed the landing force became alarmed. Just what amount of surplus fuel the ship had aboard was not known. But members of the ground force said it soon would be exhausted.

With the maximum amount of fuel aboard, the Italia would be able to remain in the air much longer than the time so far elapsed. On her last flight, she was gone 68 hours.

Anxiety of the landing force, in view of the Italia's silence and the knowledge, from radio messages, that she was fighting every inch of the way back, with a coating of ice forming on her great hull, was tempered by the fact that Nobile was in charge.

The Italia is Nobile's ship. He designed her, built her, has accompanied her on every flight, and has remained at her helm at all the frequent times when her buoyancy and power were matched against the storms she has encountered.

"ANNE, WHAT'S HER NAME," PLAY

Third Performance to be Given at Grand Opening at Emily Hall

Tomorrow evening, the cast of the play "Anne, What's Her Name," will present a third performance. This time it will be a grand opening at the Emily hall at 8:15 o'clock followed by a big dance by Louis Johnson's eight piece orchestra at 10 o'clock.

Many cars have planned to go to Emily from Brainerd, and surrounding towns, and all are planning an unusually good time. The cars conveying the cast and orchestra will start from Fitzsimmons & Sons' store at 2 o'clock and travel together. After arranging the stage setting, they will enjoy a picnic supper.

On account of the illness of Frank Kaufman, who took the part of the doctor in the play, the role will be taken by Earl Fitzsimmons. The trip has been planned for some time, and the sudden illness of Mr. Kaufman threw a shadow over the whole cast, but they are glad he is improving, and is now able to see friends.

'WHAT PRICE GLORY' DEPICTS WAR LIFE

Has Moralizing Effect on Ban of War; Presented Tonight at Park Theatre

Actual dugout scenes will be used by the Obrecht Sisters and Johnnie Sullivan Players in the presentation of their featured war play, "What Price Glory" at the Park theatre this evening.

The scenes depict the true life behind the curtains of the front. The story is realistic and does not attempt to hide the horridness of the bloody battlefield.

The play is presented here, as throughout the entire country, primarily for the renunciation of war. It is an accurate account of a certain sector in France while the war was on.

Miss Sally Obrecht, petit star of the company, has the role of "Charmaine," the little French girl who starts all the trouble. Mr. Sullivan and George Bowling in the roles of Sergeant Quirt and Captain Flagg will hold the spotlight as the principals.

MINNESOTA GAINING IN FARM POPULATION

WHILE most of the northwest was losing farm population in recent years, Minnesota was gaining, and out of the entire nation, only two states, California and Texas, showed a gain of more new farmers than Minnesota during the last 15 years, H. C. Hotelling, state tourist commissioner, and secretary of the Ten Thousand Lakes association, told radio listeners over Station WCCO, Minneapolis-St. Paul, in a recent talk.

Mr. Hotelling gave as authority for his remarks government figures of the last agricultural census, made public recently. The figures showed that during the period between 1910 and 1920, Minnesota gained 22,341 new farmers. In the following five years between 1920 and 1925, she gained another 9,753. Speaking of the gain between 1920 and 1925, Mr. Hotelling said: "It must be remembered that Minnesota made this latter gain when other states throughout the northwest were losing farm population. Only two other states, Wisconsin and South Dakota, showed gains during the same period and it must be remembered that both of these states, like Minnesota, are tourist states receiving the benefit of the good words which summer visitors have to say about them." Mr. Hotelling also said that the census carries the information that of the 188,000 farms in Minnesota 136,382 are operated by the owners, and farm property in Minnesota is worth $7,761,684,227. In calling attention to Minnesota's greatness as an agricultural state he said that all the field and fruit crops of Florida, valued at $70,961,000 or $7,000,000 less than what Minnesota farmers received from their oats and barley alone. Making comparison against California he said that the entire production of oranges, strawberries, asparagus and cantaloupes is about $72,300,000 or ten million dollars less than what was received for Minnesota's corn crop alone.

COUPE F.O.B. DETROIT

How do YOU test a motor car?

Is speed the first test you apply to a motor car? . . . Then drive the Victory Six, for no car in its class is so fast.

Is acceleration a major consideration? . . . 5 to 25 miles in 7 1/4 seconds—10 to 45 miles in 13 1/2 seconds—tell the unparalleled story of Victory pick-up.

Are you interested in economy? . . . 21 miles per gallon at 25 miles per hour is average gas consumption for this famous Six.

A hill climber? . . . Ask Montana, Colorado, Pennsylvania! More power per pound is the answer. A body with only 8 major parts—lighter by 175 pounds—yet sturdier!

A smooth traveller? . . . Dash over railroad tracks—over old cobble pavements—and you'll marvel! For The Victory Six is different. No body sills—no body overhang—chassis the full width of the body—a lower center of gravity. Sidesway, bouncing, rear wheel chatter magically absent.

Roomy? . . . Head room equal to any—superior to most—in its class. Wider seats—more leg room. Big!

And a beauty! Rakish and trim in line, richly upholstered, beautifully lacquered in smart hues—tomorrow's style with Dodge dependability.

A car that you should try out—now—yourself at the wheel.

MINNESOTA GAINING IN FARM POPULATION

WHILE most of the northwest was losing farm population in recent years, Minnesota was gaining, and out of the entire nation, only two states, California and Texas, showed a gain of more new farmers than Minnesota during the last 15 years, H. C. Hotaling, state tourist commissioner, and secretary of the Ten Thousand Lakes association, told radio listeners over Station WCCO, Minneapolis-St. Paul, in a recent talk.

Mr. Hotaling gave as authority for his remarks government figures of the last agricultural census, made public recently. The figures showed that during the period between 1910 and 1920, Minnesota gained 22,341 new farmers. In the following five years between 1920 and 1925, she gained another 9,753. Speaking of the gain between 1920 and 1925, Mr. Hotaling said: "It must be remembered that Minnesota made this latter gain when other states throughout the northwest were losing farm population. Only two other states, Wisconsin and South Dakota, showed gains during the same period and it must be remembered that both of these states, like Minnesota, are tourist states receiving the benefit of the good words which summer visitors have to say about them." Mr. Hotaling also said that the census carries the information that of the 188,000 farms in Minnesota 136,382 are operated by the owners, and farm property in Minnesota is worth $7,761,684,227. In calling attention to Minnesota's greatness as an agricultural state he said that all the field and fruit crops of Florida, valued at $70,961,000 or $7,000,000 less than what Minnesota farmers received from their oats and barley alone. Making comparison against California he said that the entire production of oranges, strawberries, asparagus and cantaloupes is about $72,300,000 or ten million dollars less than what was received for Minnesota's corn crop alone.

LITA GRAY CHAPLIN

SUMMONED TO TESTIFY IN CLARK TRIAL

Manti, Utah, May 25.—(UP)—A subpoena was issued here today for Lita Gray Chaplin, divorced wife of Charles Chaplin, movie comedian, to testify in the trial of Sheldon Reed Clark, 22, on trial for the murder of her former butler, Don Solovitch. The action was taken at the request of Lewis Larsen, counsel for Clark.

Parents!

RADIO is bringing a new era of education to our schools. Schools everywhere feel the need and possibilities of radio. Unfortunately most schools have no special fund for this purpose. Recently two large organizations worked out a plan whereby all schools may have installed one of the finest radio units in the country simply through the cooperation of parents, pupils and teachers. All parents of school children as well as teachers and school officials are invited to write for full particulars to the Nash-Atwater Kent School Radio, 1330 Quincy St. N. E., Minneapolis, Minn.

DODGE BROTHERS VICTORY SIX

How do YOU test a motor car?

Is speed the first test you apply to a motor car? . . . Then drive the Victory Six, for no car in its class is so fast.

Is acceleration a major consideration? . . . 5 to 25 miles in 7 1/4 seconds—10 to 45 miles in 13 1/2 seconds—tell the unparalleled story of Victory pick-up.

Are you interested in economy? . . . 21 miles per gallon at 25 miles per hour is average gas consumption for this famous Six.

A hill climber? . . . Ask Montana, Colorado, Pennsylvania! More power per pound is the answer. A body with only 8 major parts—lighter by 175 pounds—yet sturdier!

A smooth traveller? . . . Dash over railroad tracks—over old cobble pavements—and you'll marvel! For The Victory Six is different. No body sills—no body overhang—chassis the full width of the body—a lower center of gravity. Sidesway, bouncing, rear wheel chatter magically absent.

Roomy? . . . Head room equal to any—superior to most—in its class. Wider seats—more leg room. Big!

And a beauty! Rakish and trim in line, richly upholstered, beautifully lacquered in smart hues—tomorrow's style with Dodge dependability.

A car that you should try out—now—yourself at the wheel.

PEATEDLY

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, May 25.—Tod Morgan of Seattle, Wash., who is the dean of ring champions in that he has held his title longer than any of the present titleholders, successfully defended his junior-lightweight crown against Eddie (Cannonball) Martin, former bantamweight champion, last night in Madison Square Garden.

Martin kept up a persistent attack, but was unable to fathom Morgan's clever defense and the champion won eight of the fifteen rounds by landing the cleaner and more frequent blows. Morgan crossed a stinging right to Eddie's jaw repeatedly and pecked the challenger's face with an annoying left. Martin was best at infighting, where his short arm beat a tattoo on Morgan's frail body. Martin won only four rounds despite his aggressiveness, with three even.

Morgan, who won the 130-pound title from Mike Ballerino, in December, 1925, somehow continues to retain his laurels despite the fact he has almost had the crown toppled from his head several times.

Of a slight build, Morgan gives the impression that one good solid body blow would crumple him, but so far no one has been found at 130 pounds capable of delivering that wallop. Since Tod won his title, every other championship has changed hands at least once, several of them more than once.

There is every reason to believe that Brainerd this summer will see its best baseball in years. Each game so far this season has proved this fact and particularly the game last night when the Northeast nine defeated the I. O. O. F. by the score of 4 to 2 after playing a nip and tuck battle from the opening stanza.

Trailing the I. O. O. F. for four innings, the Northeast team tied the count in the fifth inning and scored two in the sixth to put themselves in the lead.

R. E. WYETT HEADS CITY BALL CLUB

The Brainerd City Baseball club elected officers last evening. R. E. Wyett being named president. Gay Flaata, treasurer and Earl O'Brien secretary.

The club this season boasts a team as fast as any produced in this section of the state. Bob Block, manager, has secured the services of Hurr and Olson to do battery work. Hurr has had a great deal of experience in semi-professional ranks, having played with some of the fastest teams in Iowa. He was formerly receiver for the Minnesota and Tracy teams of Minnesota.

Olson, former pitcher for Peoria and Mobile, is on the firing line for Brainerd. He has good control, stuff on the ball and plenty of "smoke." Brainerd will make every effort to hand out to Little Falls their first defeat of the season when they meet at the down river town next Sunday afternoon.

MONEY PRIZES SPUR ON THE WEARY RACERS

TODAY THEY RUN TO PASSAIC, N. J., HOME TOWN OF JOHN SALO

SATURDAY TO WEEHAWKEN, BOARD FERRY, AND INTO NEW YORK

Passaic, N. J., May 25.—(U.P.)—Grins spread across the faces of many of the bowshanked individuals of C. C. Pyle's cross country run today—grins that radiated belief they were about to come into sizeable money.

Many even made the extreme amateurish motion of asking about the money as they panted to a halt after yesterday's 38-mile run from Middletown. They were skeptical, but they just wanted to know for sure that there was going to be plenty of money to go around when the home stretch in Madison Square Garden is reached Saturday night.

Today they run to Passaic, N. J., the home town of John Salo, second place runner. Saturday they run to Weehawken, board a ferry there, run up town and enter the Madison Square Garden amidst a celebration that will be great of trumpetry. A 20 mile run in the Garden will conclude the race.

"You bet Andy will finish the race by running the 20 miles required," Andrew Payne, Sr., said about his son, the leading runner. Young Andy is in good shape and now has a lead of 17 hours, 34 minutes and 6 seconds.

William Kerr, Minneapolis, advanced to sixth place among the leaders yesterday.

Passaic, N. J., May 25.—With more than a hundred automobiles trailing behind him, John Salo, who is almost certain of taking second place in C. C. Pyle's transcontinental foot race, jogged in the winner of today's 24-mile run from Suffern, N. Y. His time was 2:49:36.

He was followed four minutes later by Richard Thomas of England. Seth Gonzales was third in 2:53:22.

BYE CLOTHING CO. DEFEAT PENNEYS IN DIAMOND BALL

TAKE CITY CHAMPIONSHIP AND WIN SILVER TROPHY; SCORE, 5 TO 1

GAME DEVELOPS INTO PITCHERS BATTLE, ERICSON VS. WARNER

Playing air tight ball the Bye Clothing Co. defeated the J. C. Penney Co. last night in the finals for the diamond ball championship and silver trophy. The score was 5 to 1.

It was a pitchers' battle most of the way with "Bic" Ericson and Carl Warner each at their best. "Bic" Ericson for the Bye Company had six strikeouts and held the Penney Co. to four scattered hits. Carl Warner of Penney Co. had seven strikeouts and allowed eight hits. The Bye Company made three errors and the J. C. Penney Co. six. All runs were scored in the first three innings after which the game settled down to a pitchers battle. Runners were on bases but good support cut off threatened rallies.

The last inning with the bases filled Carl Warner forced the next batter to fly to the infield retiring the side. The J. C. Penney Co. made the only double play of the evening. Uddenberg to Orth to Peterson.

Bergstrand and Boyd of the Bye Company featured with home runs. Umpires were Barrett, Floyd Nelson and I. L. Peterson.

The Bye Company owe their success to the pitching of "Bic" Ericson who has proved himself one of the best in the league. The support he received has also been a deciding factor in the team's success.

Losing the first game of the season to the Y. M. C. A. the Bye Clothiers have won the remaining games, eight straight.

Of a slight build, Morgan gives the impression that one good solid body blow would crumple him, but so far no one has been found at 130 pounds capable of delivering that wallop. Since Tod won his title, every other championship has changed hands at least once, several of them more than once.

NORTHEAST SCORES TWO IN SIXTH TO BEAT I. O. O. F. 4-2

SANDGREN, I. O. O. F. TWIRLER, HAS 10 STRIKEOUTS TO HIS CREDIT; RICHMOND, 8

There is every reason to believe that Brainerd this summer will see its best baseball in years. Each game so far this season has proved this fact and particularly the game last night when the Northeast nine defeated the I. O. O. F. by the score of 4 to 2 after playing a nip and tuck battle from the opening stanza.

Trailing the I. O. O. F. for four innings, the Northeast team tied the count in the fifth inning and scored two in the sixth to put themselves in the lead.

R. E. WYETT HEADS CITY BALL CLUB

The Brainerd City Baseball club elected officers last evening. R. E. Wyett being named president, Gay Flaata, treasurer and Earl O'Brien secretary.

The club this season boasts a team as fast as any produced in this section of the state. Bob Block, manager, has secured the services of Hurr and Olson to do battery work. Hurr has had a great deal of experience in semi-professional ranks, having played with some of the fastest teams in Iowa. He was formerly receiver for the Minnesota and Tracy teams of Minnesota.

Olson, former pitcher for Peoria and Mobile, is on the firing line for Brainerd. He has good control, stuff on the ball and plenty of "smoke." Brainerd will make every effort to hand out to Little Falls their first defeat of the season when they meet at the down river town next Sunday afternoon.

MONEY PRIZES SPUR ON THE WEARY RACERS

TODAY THEY RUN TO PASSAIC, N. J., HOME TOWN OF JOHN SALO

SATURDAY TO WEEHAWKEN, BOARD FERRY, AND INTO NEW YORK

Suffern, N. Y., May 25.—(U.P.)—Grins spread across the faces of many of the bewhiskered individuals of C. C. Pyle's cross country run today—grins that radiated belief they were about to come into sizeable money.

Many even made the extreme unamateurish motion of asking about the money as they panted to a halt after yesterday's 38-mile run from Middletown. They were skeptical, but they just wanted to know for sure that there was going to be plenty of money to go around when the home stretch in Madison Square Garden is reached Saturday night.

Today they run to Passaic, N. J., the home town of John Salo, second place runner. Saturday they run to Weehawken, board a ferry there, run up town and enter the Madison Square Garden amidst a celebration that will be great of trumpetry. A 20 mile run in the Garden will conclude the race.

"You bet Andy will finish the race by running the 20 miles required," Andrew Payne, Sr., said about his son, the leading runner. Young Andy is in good shape and now has a lead of 17 hours, 34 minutes and 6 seconds.

William Kerr, Minneapolis, advanced to sixth place among the leaders yesterday.

Passaic, N. J., May 25.—With more than a hundred automobiles trailing behind him, John Salo, who is almost certain of taking second place in C. C. Pyle's transcontinental foot race, jogged in the winner of today's 24-mile run from Suffern, N. Y. His time was 2:49:36.

He was followed four minutes later by Richard Thomas of England. Seth Gonzales was third in 2:53:22.

BABE RUTH HITS HIS 15TH AND 16TH HOMERS OF SEASON

Philadelphia, May 25.—(U.P.)—Babe Ruth hit his 15th and 16th homers of the season in the second game of today's double bill between the New York Yanks and the Philadelphia Athletics.

Philadelphia, May 25.—(U.P.)—Babe Ruth hit his 15th homer of the season in the first inning of the second game of today's doubleheader between the New York Yanks and the Philadelphia Athletics.

BYE CLOTHING CO. DEFEAT PENNEYS IN DIAMOND BALL

TAKE CITY CHAMPIONSHIP AND WIN SILVER TROPHY; SCORE, 5 TO 1

GAME DEVELOPS INTO PITCHERS BATTLE, ERICSON VS. WARNER

Playing air tight ball the Bye Clothing Co. defeated the J. C. Penney Co. last night in the finals for the diamond ball championship and silver trophy. The score was 5 to 1.

It was a pitchers' battle most of the way with "Bic" Ericson and Carl Warner each at their best. "Bic" Ericson for the Bye Company had six strikeouts and held the Penney Co. to four scattered hits. Carl Warner of Penney Co. had seven strikeouts and allowed eight hits. The Bye Company made three errors and the J. C. Penney Co. six. All runs were scored in the first three innings after which the game settled down to a pitchers battle. Runners were on bases but good support cut off threatened rallies.

The last inning with the bases filled Carl Warner forced the next batter to fly to the infield retiring the side. The J. C. Penney Co. made the only double play of the evening, Uddenberg to Orth to Peterson.

Bergstrand and Boyd of the Bye Company featured with home runs. Umpires were Barrett, Floyd Nelson and I. L. Peterson.

The Bye Company owe their success to the pitching of "Bic" Ericson who has proved himself one of the best in the league. The support he received has also been a deciding factor in the team's success.

Losing the first game of the season to the Y. M. C. A. the Bye Clothiers have won the remaining games, eight straight.

Entertainment to be Given at Public Library at 8 O'clock Tonight

COSTUMES ARE FUNNY

Stage Settings, Considering From Whence Secured, Are Marvelous

The Junior Library club and its friends held their last rehearsal last night for the entertainment to be given tonight at 8 o'clock at the Public Library. If each actor does his part as nobly tonight as he did then the entertainment will rival talented art.

The costumes are simple, but funny—and attractive too. Stage settings are simply marvelous (considering from whence most of them were dragged) and the club even boasts of footlights. Something must be said of the actors themselves. Can you see a noisy, active group of boys and girls at rehearsal? If you can't, please presume that it is a regular Tom Sawyer and Penrod affair.

The dialogues are ones you will enjoy, and the one tableau is very well acted out. The coon concert will take the house by storm—so don't miss your part of the fun at the Library basement tonight at 8 o'clock.

BANQUET, DEGREE WORK SCHEDULED

DeMolays' Big Event of Season to be Held Tomorrow Evening

MUSICAL PROGRAM AT DINNER

Granite City Chapter to Send Degree Team; Masons Invited

The big event of the DeMolay year will take place at the Masonic hall tomorrow evening when a banquet will be held at 6:30 o'clock to be followed at 8 o'clock by degree work.

The first degree will be put on by the Granite City Chapter, St. Cloud and the second degree will be conferred by the Roosevelt Chapter of Brainerd. Frank B. "Dad" Carey, of Duluth, state deputy of DeMolay, will be present with other Masons and DeMolays from Duluth.

John Fisher, master councillor, will give the welcoming address at the banquet and will also act as toastmaster. A musical program will be rendered during the course of the banquet.

Masons and DeMolays from Ferguson Falls, Staples, Pine River, Aitkin, Crosby-Ironton, St. Cloud, Pequot, Nisswa will be in attendance.

St. Cloud will send the largest delegation, the meeting being a return visit of their degree team, Brainerd having sent their team to the Granite City recently. This is the second consecutive year that Brainerd and St. Cloud have exchanged degree teams. A large class of candidates will be initiated.

A special invitation is extended to all Masons to attend.

Twelve years in the theatre business during which time he at one time or another handled each of the duties in the show profession with the exception of musical director, George Irwin was today on his way to Durant, Mich., where he has accepted a position as manager of the Regent theatre, one of the Butterworth Company houses.

Mr. Irwin started his profession as manager of the Park theatre of Brainerd and has since been employed as manager of the Palace theatre, Minneapolis, Lyceum of St. Paul, and Lyric of Duluth.

Among the positions he "filled" in at during the performances include those of ticket taker, ticket seller, usher, stage hand, announcer, actor, general utility man, manager, and on one occasion to complete the roster played the bass drum accompaniment to "The Birth of a Nation."

1927 'SPUDS' IN GROUND THROUGH WINTER ARE FINE

Oscar Opgaard farmer who resides 3 miles northwest of Brainerd claims that since potatoes can remain in the ground all winter and not be frozen, the winters of Minnesota can't be so very disagreeable.

He bases his contention on the fact that today he is eating potatoes of 1927 which remained in the ground throughout the winter. In plowing he found over a bushel of potatoes which diggers had failed to pick up last fall. The potatoes were fresh and made good eating.

Offers to Equip Schools With Radio Receivers

The Nash Coffee Co. of Minneapolis, Minn., is offering every school the opportunity of obtaining a Model 37, 6-tube, Atwater-Kent radio set, complete with tubes and speaker. The set is all-electric, or the battery type where required.

The Nash Coffee Co. explains that the plan does not involve solicitation of any nature, nor the purchase of any quantity of goods other than that used normally in practically every home. The plan imposes neither upon pupils nor their parents, and is made possible because the Nash Coffee Co. wishes to place music and educational features regularly before children of school age.

The age of education by radio is here. Every school should be equipped with a fine radio set. The Nash Coffee Co. makes this offer open to every school.

For further information, write the Nash Coffee Co., 1330 Quincy St. N. E., Minneapolis, Minn., and full particulars will be sent you.

1927 'SPUDS' IN GROUND THROUGH WINTER ARE FINE

Oscar Oppgaard farmer who resides 3 miles northwest of Brainerd claims that since potatoes can remain in the ground all winter and not be frozen, the winters of Minnesota can't be so very disagreeable.

He bases his contention on the fact that today he is eating potatoes of 1927 which remained in the ground throughout the winter. In plowing he found over a bushel of potatoes which diggers had failed to pick up last fall. The potatoes were fresh and made good eating.

Offers to Equip Schools With Radio Receivers

The Nash Coffee Co. of Minneapolis, Minn., is offering every school the opportunity of obtaining a Model 37, 6-tube, Atwater-Kent radio set, complete with tubes and speaker. The set is an electric, or the battery type where required.

The Nash Coffee Co. explains that the plan does not involve solicitation of any nature, nor the purchase of any quantity of goods other than that used normally in practically every home. The plan imposes neither upon pupils nor their parents, and is made possible because the Nash Coffee Co. wishes to place music and educational features regularly before children of school age.

The age of education by radio is here. Every school should be equipped with a fine radio set. The Nash Coffee Co. makes this offer open to every school.

For further information, write the Nash Coffee Co., 1330 Quincy St. N. E., Minneapolis, Minn., and full particulars will be sent you.

PRESIDENT DONNELLY AND PARTY IN CITY

Northern Pacific Special Train of Six Business Cars Here at the Noon Hour

VISITED CUYUNA RANGE

Mr. Donnelly Commented on Improving Business Conditions and Ore Situation

President Charles Donnelly and officials of the Northern Pacific railway company, traveling in a special train of six business coaches, which left St. Paul for Duluth yesterday morning, reached Brainerd this morning and later inspected Cuyuna range mining properties.

President Donnelly commented on improved business conditions reigning in railway territory. He was pleased to see Brainerd such a progressive city, its many improvements apparent on each visit paid here.

Commenting on Cuyuna range conditions, he said the tonnage would exceed in a measure that of last year. Shipments of ore are now being made over the Northern Pacfic. Price of ore continues about the same as last year. Carl Zapffe, superintendent of ore properties, accompanied the party on the range tour and will make the rest of the trip with them.

The rail officials party consists of President Donnelly; B. O. Johnson, assistant to president; F. E. Williamson, vice president (operating department); D. F. Lyons, general counsel; R. W. Clark, general traffic manager; W. H. Strachan, general superintendent; H. E. Stevens, chief engineer; J. M. Hughes, land commissioner; E. E. Nelson, passenger traffic manager; F. W. Stetckuh, auditor disbursements; P. B. Lacy, treasurer; B. P. Johnson, mechanical superintendent; and L. P. Ordway,
St. Paul business man.

They left special for International Falls via the Minnesota & International railway at 1:30 P. M. en route to Winnipeg and will run special from Winnipeg to St. Paul Saturday.

W. H. Gemmell, president of the Minnesota & International, accompanied the party and will leave St.
Paul Sunday for Fargo to go west
Monday and Tuesday on a dairy-poultry special train, which is touring North Dakota in the interest of improving dairying and poultry raising in that state.

SENATOR ROCKNE VISITS BRAINERD

Favorably Received by His Many Friends in Northern
Minnesota

As Chairman of Senate Finance Committee Holds Post of Responsibility

Senator A. J. Rockne, of Zumbrota, a republican candidate for the U. S. senate, visiting among his friends in Brainerd today, was pleased with the reception accorded him, especially at the newspaper office.
He has been the owner of the Zumbrota
News since 1897 and his partner,
E. F. Davis, conducts the paper.

He said he has been most favorably received throughout northern Minnesota.

Brainerd citizens have just cause to remember the work done for them in the legislature by Senator Rockne, when he as chairman of the senate finance committee, obtained the passage of the law whereby the city of Brainerd and other towns having large railroad properties receive special aid on account of such properties paying gross earnings taxes.

The law was first applicable only to school districts, but later it was amended to include the municipalities.

Brainerd impressed the senator as an up to date city, with its paved streets, its fine business institutions and beautiful dwellings. He regarded the court house as a very fine structure well adapted to the purposes for which it was built.

VERDICT RETURNED

Jury Returns $877.50 Damages in Favor of Alfred Lyons in Accident Case

In the case of Alfred Lyons vs.
Emil Kunde and Miles Guin, which was an automobile accident which occurred on May 1, 1927, at west end of Laurel street bridge a jury this week in district court returned a verdict for the plaintiff against Kunde only for $877.50 damages.
No damages were found against Guin.

Lyons was represented by Wieland and Sullivan, Kunde by Ryan, Ryan, and Ryan, and Guin by Swanson,

ACTIVE PROGRAM PLANNED

District Governor W. M. Oates Explains Plans for Convention

Brainerd Lions held their regular meeting at Aitkin Wednesday night for the purpose of assisting in the reopening of activities in the Aitkin club.

District Governor W. M. Oates, of Aberdeen, S. D., was present and delivered an address on the value of Lionism to a community and made a report of activities of different Lions clubs throughout the district during the past year. He explained the plans for the coming convention at Breezy Point to be held June 11 and 12.

The meeting resulted in the Ait-kin club deciding to meet again each Wednesday noon. The club has already laid out a program of work that will keep the members active for the next year. New officers and directors will be elected next month.
The Aitkin club was sponsored and organized by the Brainerd club two years ago and Aitkin has an enviable reputation for achievement for the short time they were active.

On the program were Miss Geradine Kiebler, violin soloist, Dr. G. L.
Badeaux, baritone, accompanied by Mrs. W. F. Wieland at the piano.
Pep talks were given by I. C. Strout, Walter M. Murphy, Dr. W. A. Erickson, R. L. Geist.

GLORIOUS BETSY

NOVELIZED BY
ARLINE DE HAAS

Copyright 1928, Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.

"GLORIOUS BETSY," starring Dolores Costello, is a Warner Bros. picturization of this novel. Based on the play by Rida Johnson Young.

SYNOPSIS

Captain Jerome Bonaparte, brother of Napoleon and his ambassador to America, masquerades as a tutor and wins the love of the bewitching Betsy Patterson. At a banquet given in her home his identity is revealed and they become public enemies. News is brought that Napoleon has been made Emperor. Jerome's aides fear the consequences of his engagement. They take Jerome aside and warn him against upsetting the Emperor's plans. Jerome asks Betsy to marry him that night. She agrees. The young couple set sail for France only to find that Napoleon has instructed that Betsy shall not be allowed to land.

"There is no necessity," Jerome broke in frigidly, his eyes gleaming, "to proceed with the orders, since my brother refuses to allow my wife to land."

St. Pierre and Dufresne looked at each other. They had scarcely expected that Jerome would go so far as to disregard absolutely the orders of the Emperor. They had looked for opposition certainly, but never such hard-headed stubbornness, such definite refusal. But they knew, too, trained soldiers that they were, that should they fail in their mission they could have committed the greatest crime possible in Napoleon's eyes. And so St. Pierre drew from an inner pocket a paper which he slowly unfolded. He stopped Jerome.

"Later, Auntie, later."

"Captain Bonaparte is commanded to leave the frigate La Cligale and to accompany our ambassadors without delay or question, leaving on board the young woman with whom he has associated himself," he read. "If these commands are not obeyed implicitly and at once, Captain Bonaparte's name shall be struck from the family records; his means of support shall be cut off, and he shall be exiled from France—Napoleon."

As Jerome stared blankly, almost uncomprehending the purport of the message, Betsy ran out on deck, her gray cape fluttering in the soft summer air. Her red curls gleamed in the setting sun as bronze as the vivid orange orb itself.

"Oh, gentlemen, forgive me for not being on deck to welcome you back, but the fog has made me such a fright and I thought you might be bringing someone with you." She glanced about the deck anxiously, searching for the figure of Napoleon.

"Mademoiselle," St. Pierre and Dufresne bowed.

"You bring news from Napoleon—my Napoleon," she questioned eagerly.

"Your Napoleon," Patterson exclaimed.

"Well, he's not quite mine yet, but then he hasn't seen me," Betsy laughed cooly. "Ah, you just wait till he sees me. You know I can be very nice, father, and I am going to turn on every—every fire in my battery—all my charms, like the little flames. He won't be able to help himself, will he?" She turned to her husband. "Well, it is settled when we're to see my hero!" she questioned.

"Yes, of course," Jerome nodded, looking threateningly at the messengers, as though daring them to refute his statement.

"O, I am so happy—so happy," Betsy tucked her arm in Jerome's. "Jerome, why aren't you jealous? I should be if you loved a woman as I love him, but then you know it is only—why what's the matter with you all?" She looked from her husband to the little group of unsimulating soldiers.

"We—we are talking business, Betty," her father attempted to draw her away from the subject, and send her off without hurting her feelings.

"Oh, I don't mind," Betsy returned gaily. "I shan't understand, of course, but then when a woman hears the voice she loves there is no need for her to understand, is there? To be together—just together—that's enough." She patted Jerome's hand tenderly.

"Really, Betty, we have something important to discuss," Patterson motioned for her to leave.

"Oh, very well, then, I'll go," she rose impulsively and stamped her foot. "You're a pair of horrid old tyrants that a woman's well rid of. But you'll be sorry. I could have told you all the news, and now you shan't hear a word—not a word." She stood in the doorway of her cabin like a naughty child. "I could have told you that Aunt Ellen has brought over my mother's wedding veil for me to wear at the Court ceremony and that she says that she thinks Dufresne is handsomer than Jerome, and that if she were choosing a husband she'd take him in preference, and that I'm sorry—I'm sorry I didn't follow her advice, but now I'll tell you nothing. You shan't see that I, too, can say 'Impossible!'" She ran into her cabin and banged the door behind her.

"Poor dear," Jerome sighed. He went over and sat down on the little seat by the mast, his head in his hands. "When she learns the truth—an outcast—a beggar—an exile!"

"Perhaps she need never know it," St. Pierre crossed the deck and bent comfortingly over Jerome, patting his shoulder. "If you will see Napoleon first, alone," he suggested. "Brothers often can settle the disputes between themselves which are not possible to arrange by a third party. For the sake of Mistress Betty I give you advice to go to him."

"Perhaps, Jerome," Patterson spoke kindly, "it is best that you should go."

"I will! I will!" Jerome sat up decisively. "For Betty's sake I will go."

St. Pierre glanced sidewise at Dufresne. He took Jerome's arm as though to lead him towards the small boat that waited a patiently below, bobbing like a cork on the waves.

"Go where, Jerome?" Betsy emerged suddenly from the cabin where she had been eavesdropping. "I just came back to ask you when we're going to see Napoleon and I heard you say 'I'll go!' Where are you going?"

"The Emperor has commanded the instant presence of Captain Bonaparte," Dufresne informed her coldly, a little tired of Jerome's arguments and the delay which he considered an impertinence.

"What! Now! Oh, dear! Dear! Jerome!" She ran towards her husband and took his hand. "Why didn't you tell me? Isn't that just like a man, never to say a word until—Aunt Ellen, oh, Aunt Ellen," she called. "Bring all my things quickly, dear," she instructed, as Miss Massenbird thrust her head out the window. "Oh, it's a scheme," she accused. "I know I look a perfect fright and just when I wanted to be so captivating, Auntie, hurry—please, please hurry, we're going to see the Emperor."

St. Pierre frowned. "Mademoiselle," he interrupted quickly, "Napoleon commands that you shall not set foot in France."

Betsy's smooth, white brow wrinkled in tiny furrows. "Not set foot in France?" she demanded questioningly. "Why, I—"

"Only for a time, dear," Jerome hastened to explain.

"Here you are, dearest," Miss Massenbird came out on deck all adfuster, her arms full with wraps and bonnets. "I brought your scarf with the French and American colors and here's the hat that Captain Bonaparte calls a dream of a creation."

"I'm not going," Betsy answered, biting her lip to keep back the tears.

"Not going? Oh, Betty," Miss Massenbird exclaimed, looking at Jerome as though to ferret out the cause of the trouble.

"Later, Auntie, later—not now," Betsy smiled sadly.

"We shall wait for you in a boat below, Captain Bonaparte," St. Pierre dismissed the two soldiers who began clambering down the ladder. "In five minutes I shall cast off for France. Our return alone, or with you, will be considered as final—your answer to the Emperor." He marched up to the gangway, followed by Dufresne, and the two disappeared over the side of the vessel.

Miss Massenbird watched these actions curiously. She was to speak when Patterson put his fingers to his lips and drew her into the cabin, leaving Betsy alone with Jerome.

"Nothing is stronger than love, is it, Jerome?" Betsy threw herself into his arms. "Love is stronger than power—stronger than all—stronger than ambition, isn't it? Tell me it is, Jerome."

"Yes, my darling, yes," Jerome held her closely.

(By United Press)

Yesterday's Hero—Jess Petty, Brooklyn southpaw, who pitched himself back into the good graces of Uncle Wilbert Robinson by holding the New York Giants to three hits, the Robins winning 3 to 0.

The New York Yankees opened their crucial six-game series with the Philadelphia Athletics by splitting a double header. Tony Lazzeri drove in six runs in the first game with two singles and a triple, the Yankees winning, 9 to 7. Ossie Orwall held the Yanks to six hits—home runs by Ruth and Lazzeri—and the A's took the second, 5 to 2.

The Chicago Cubs lost their fourth straight game as the Pirates broke their own losing streak with a 6 to 2 victory.

FIGHT TO KEEP INCOME TAXES FROM NEWSPAPERS

SEN. SMOOTS TO SEEK QUIETUS TO DRASTIC PUBLICITY AMENDMENT

LATTER HAD BEEN ATTACHED BY AGREEMENT TO TAX REDUCTION BILL

Washington, May 25.—(UP)—A fight to keep income tax returns out of the newspapers and other public places was scheduled to take place in the senate today if the Muscle Shoals filibuster ended in time. Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, planned to ask the senate to rescind its action in adopting a drastic complete publicity amendment to the tax reduction bill, revenue and administrative features of which were agreed upon late yesterday by senate and house conferees.

The bill in its present form, carrying a flat 12 per cent corporation tax rate and total reduction of $225,295,000, is expected to be adopted by both houses and signed by President Coolidge. If the senate refuses to kill the publicity provision, this matter will be taken up again by the conferees.

The one and one-half corporation tax reduction will save taxpayers $123,000,000. Increase of corporation exemption from $2,000 to $3,000 will save them $12,000,000 more.

Purchasers of new automobiles will save $66,000,000 a year through repeal of the three per cent automobile excise tax.
